Foreword

To the students still here on Eastern's campus and to all those who are now serving in the armed forces we of the staff present this Milestone of 1943.

We have tried to select those things which we thought would give fair representation of the past year here at Eastern, and we hope that it will always serve as a pleasant link to the days you spent here.

You too have helped greatly with this yearbook; for without your cooperation and your support it would never have been possible.

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1943 takes great pride in dedicating this Milestone to Colonel John R. Starkey, Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Eastern.

A graduate of West Point, Colonel Starkey has seen service in the United States Army all over the world and is even now ready to go back to active duty and resume his leadership in this time of our nation's crisis. Although Colonel Starkey has been at Eastern only two years, he has already made many friends among the students and faculty.

The high tribute paid to him by the men in the R. O. T. C., that he is a man under whom they would like to serve, testifies to his merit of this honor.

Have Left Eastern To Serve
In America's Armed Forces*

This page is dedicated to those who have already entered into the armed forces; to the men who have given their lives for their country; to the men who will be leaving soon; and to those who have made such noble sacrifices for this beautiful land of ours—the United States of America.

IN MEMORIAM

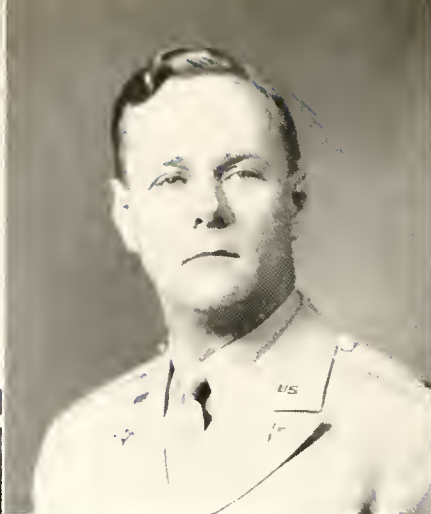

THE UNRETURNING

We dedicate to those who come no more
 To see the redbud blooming in the spring,
 To sing with us the songs we used to sing,
To open again a well remembered door,
This page, these words. The men of quiet worth,
 The friendly ones who here have walked together,
 Our lads that raced the field in autumn weather,
The merry souls that set our hearts to mirth
Are "missing" on the oceans, in the air,
 The desert and the jungle and the snow.
 With a farewell thought of home, we well may know,
They, our unreturning ones, have fallen there.

But we see them, as we knew them, living—see
 Their faces laughing, wistful, gay, profound;
 Their voices steal upon us like the sound
Of vanished music held in memory.
Their names live on among us and we hear
 Them spoken often in the quiet day;
 And deep beneath the many things we say,
Insistently they linger in the ear.
And we who live beyond this time of tears
 And anguished loss and tragedy and pain
 Will hold in treasured memory down the years
Our well beloved who will not come again.

EASTERN STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE AND THE WAR

Soon after Pearl Harbor, Eastern joined the other colleges and universities of the nation in offering all of its facilities for use by our Government during the war. The college adopted the quarter plan to meet the needs for shorter courses and an accelerated program for those who would soon enter military service. The Department of Health and Physical Education, always outstanding at Eastern, gave new emphasis to physical fitness for every student as a personal asset and a national aim.

Without fanfare or the sound of trumpets, Eastern's men answered the call to arms. In near by and far-off places, they serve. Officers trained in our ROTC are directing field artillery units at the front while other graduates and former students man bombers and fighting ships. Eastern men are in every branch of the service and on every battle line.

Twelve members of the faculty have enlisted in the Army or Navy. They are on leave of absence from the college and are expected to return to their work here at the close of the war. Other faculty members have assumed heavier loads on the campus in order to release some for active service. In addition to their college duties, they are also promoting bond sales and participating in civic meetings to discuss war aims and problems. Night classes have been organized for the employees of the Blue Grass Ordnance Depot while first aid classes are being taught for off-campus groups.

Last February the War Department established here, Branch No. 6 of the Army Administration Schools for the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps. Six hundred forty members of this unit are now housed in Burnam Hall. Three hundred are graduated every three weeks and are sent to their posts of service here and abroad.

The many adjustments necessary for the operation of the WAAC school and the regular college program on the same campus were made cheerfully and with a remarkable degree of understanding and cooperation on the part of both students and faculty.

The draft together with the dislocations due to the increased demands on industry has brought about a serious teacher shortage in the Nation as a whole and especially in Kentucky. Eastern accepts a definite responsibility in connection with this crisis and plans to enlarge its service to the public schools this summer by conducting study centers in several counties to which the college has been invited and where many emergency permits have been issued in order to keep the schools open. The college will also offer a continuous supervisory service to be given through the regular school year by the college faculty and extended to selected counties through the State Department of Education.

As its duties become more clearly defined, Eastern will react promptly to its opportunities. There will be no blackout of its service to the Commonwealth and to the Nation.

COMMANDANT

COLONEL JOHN R. STARKEY

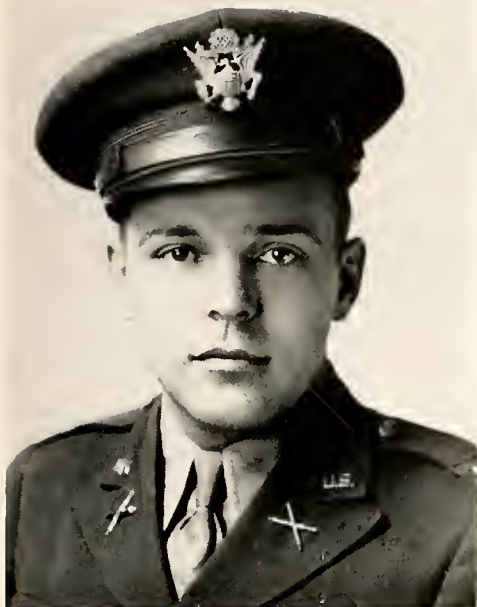

Eastern has been indeed fortunate to have at the head of its military department a graduate of West Point and a former commander of the artillery at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Colonel John R. Starkey has made all who came in contact with him feel that here is a man under whom a soldier would like to serve and obey his command.

Colonel Starkey saw service in the first World War, and his battalion of field artillery was the first American unit to fire a shot.

Previous to the World War One, he saw service on the Mexican Border.

Colonel Starkey has given to the Military Department all the benefit of experience and knowledge as a leader of the armed forces of the United States. Eastern will be heard from on all battle fronts.

CAPTAIN EARL T. NOBLE

LT. GUY WHITEHEAD

STAFF

As assistant instructors in Military Science the men of the R. O. T. C. have been fortunate to have Captain Earl T. Noble and 1st Lt. Guy Whitehead.

Captain Noble has been well liked by the men of the R. O. T. C. Having graduated from an R. O. T. C. unit himself, he is well acquainted with the problems of the men of the R. O. T. C. and has been most helpful to them.

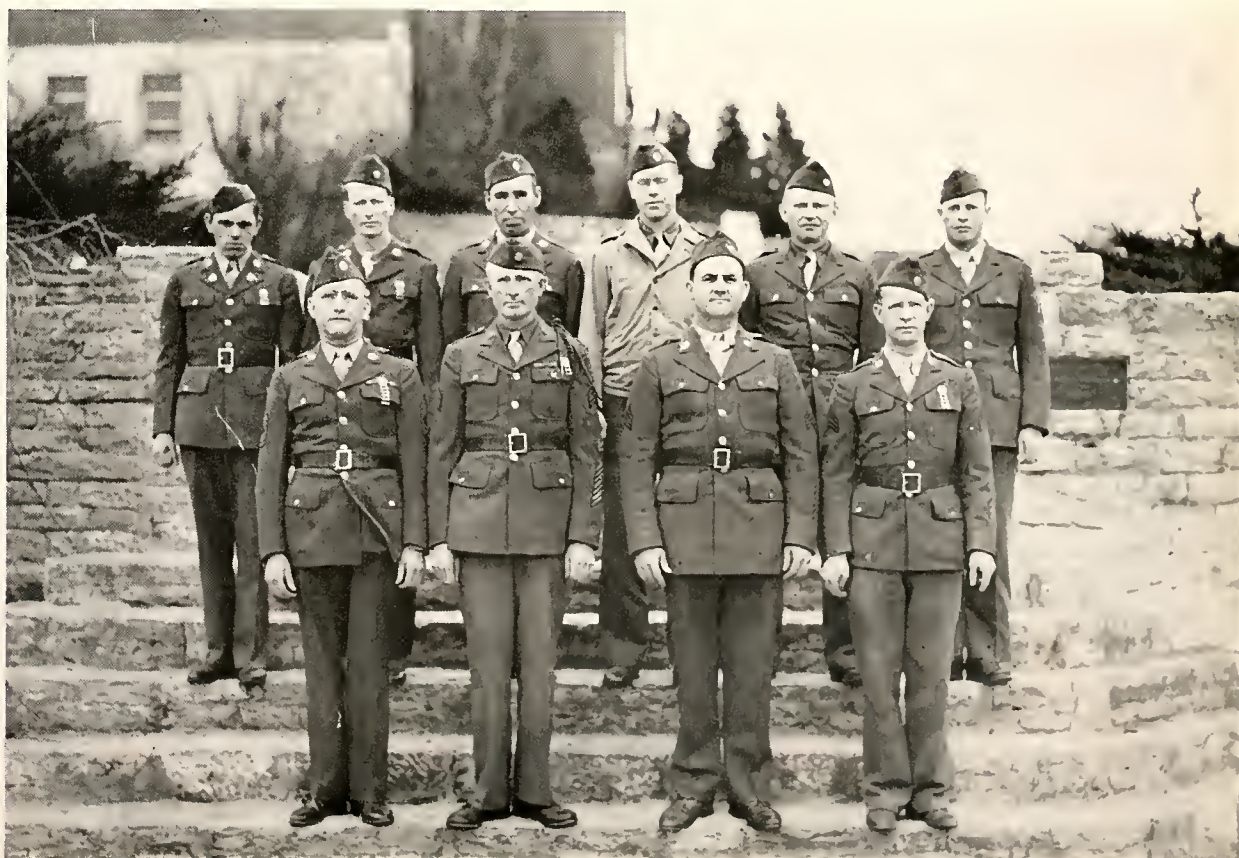

A former graduate of the R. O. T. C. at Eastern, Lt. Whitehead has proved his worth as an instructor, particularly in the instruction of dismounted drill and the manual of arms.

Any mention of the staff would be incomplete without word about the enlisted men. Master Sergeant Bentley, the office chief; Staff Sergeant Bond, communication expert; Sergeant Vernon and Corporal Williams, the mechanical wizards; Sergeant Wilson, supply sergeant; Corporal Miller, clerk; and Corporal Chrisman, Private Boyd, and Private Casey, general duty have all shown their worth in the help they have rendered to the men of the R. O. T. C.

From Col. Starkey down to Private Boyd and Casey the staff here at Eastern will long be remembered by the men of the R. O. T. C.

Second Row: Pvt. H. O. Price, Corps. R. Miller, C. Williams, Pvs. J. Casey, R. Boyd, and R. Chrisman.

The first battery to pass the reviewing stand, Battery A, has always given the following batteries an ideal to achieve. In the seven years that Battery A has been organized, it has never failed to be well up in the final standings of the batteries.

Battery A was commanded this year by Cadet Captain Paul A. Houchell. The Battery executive was Cadet 1st. Lt. Claude Rawlings, Cadet Lts. William Mason and Gayle McConnell were the platoon commanders.

The Battery sponsor was Ann Gately.

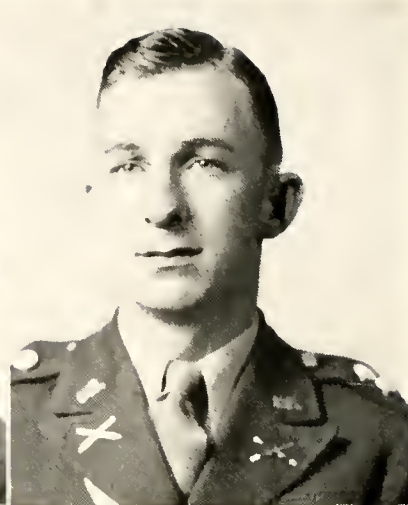

The men of Battery A have never failed to cooperate to the fullest extent with their commanding officers.

Battery B has lived a life of seven years on the Eastern campus, and from its ranks, as formed near the fifty yard line, have come many outstanding and true Americans who are now carrying on with the same tradition of their old R. O. T. C. Battery B.

Battery B is now commanded by Cadet Captain Henry J. Flynn. Helping Captain Flynn have been Cadet 1st. Lt. Claude Williams, Battery Executive; Cadet Lt. Joe Bill Siphers, and Cadet Lt. Blanton Wilson, platoon leaders.

The sponsor of Battery B is Mae Fawbush O'Donnell.

Battery B has made a most commendable showing this year and much credit is due to the cooperation Captain Flynn was able to secure from each and every member of the battery.

The youngest battery in the battalion, Battery C, has taken its place along with its older brothers and has never failed to equal or better them in intra-battery competition. The last battery to pass the reviewing stand, Battery C has never been the last in ability.

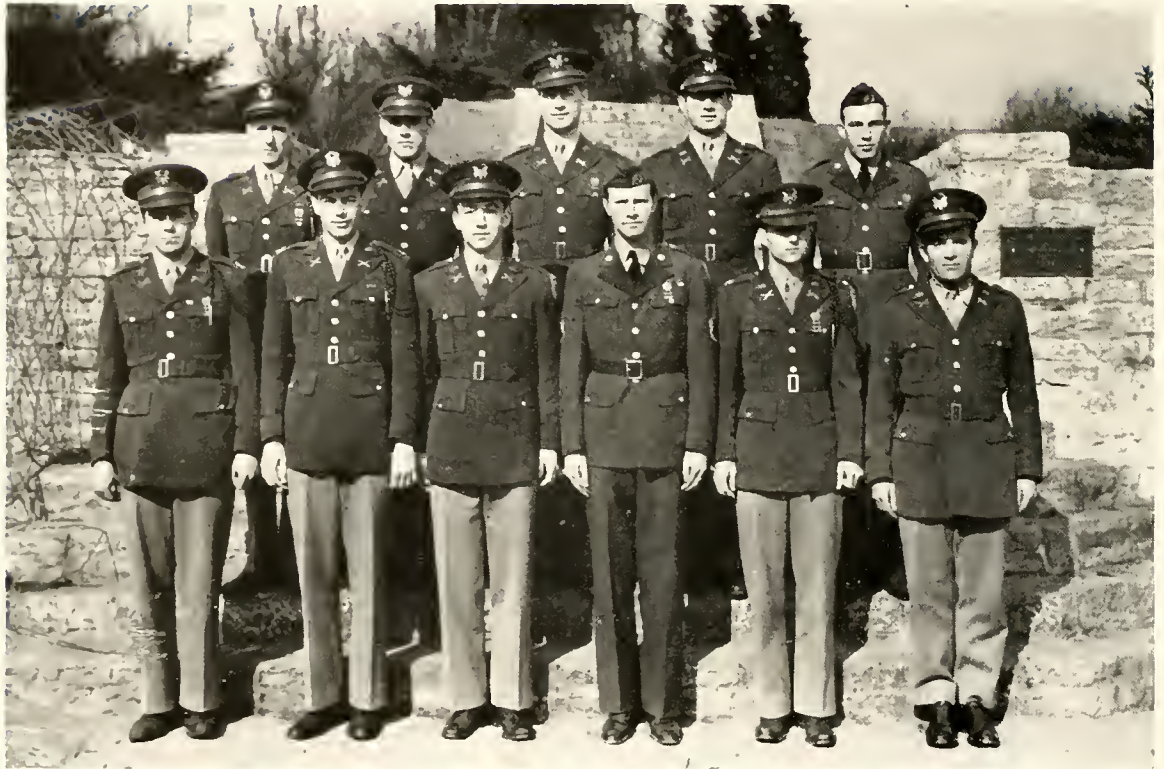

This year the commanding officer of Battery C was Cadet Captain Robert Yeager. He was ably assisted by Cadet 1st Lt. Earl Stafford, Executive, and Cadet Lts. Walter Kleinsteuber, and Francis Haas, platoon commanders.

The Battery Sponsor was Margie Crites.

The cooperation of the men of Battery C with their officers was at all times superior.

PISTOL TEAM

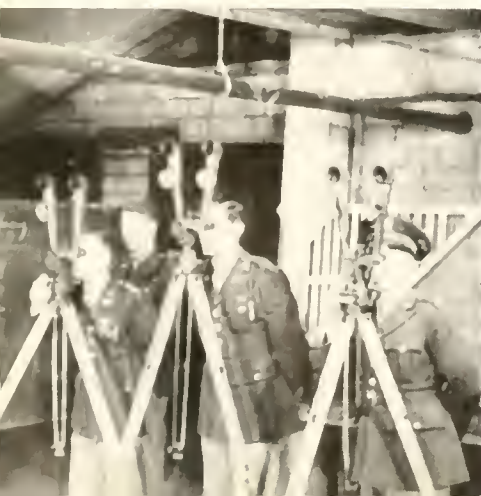

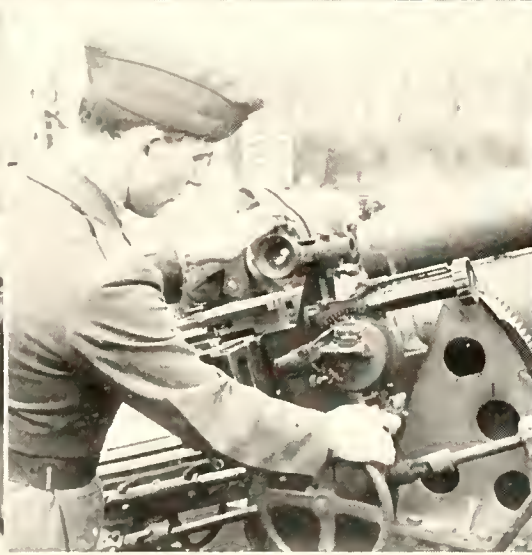

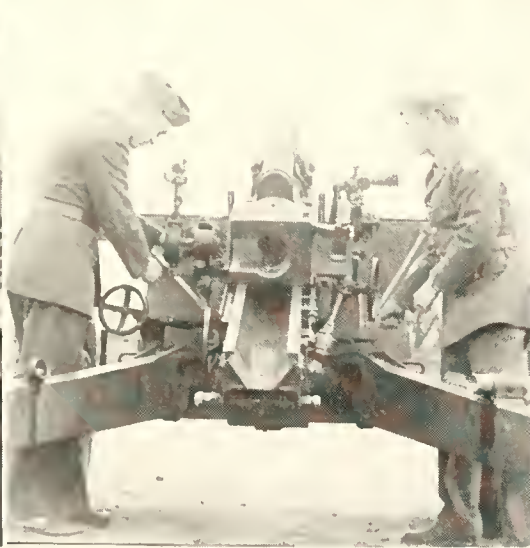

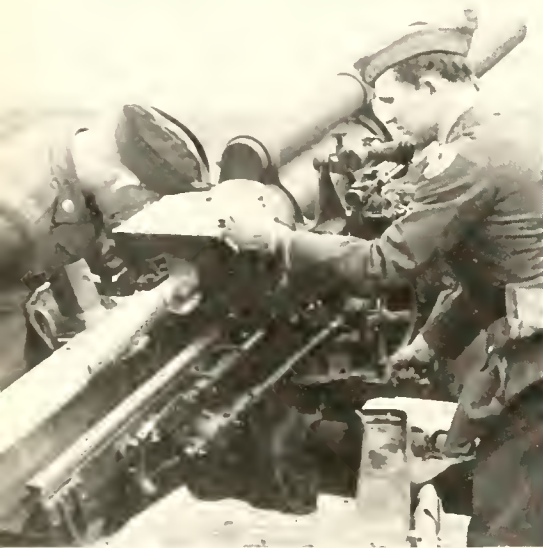

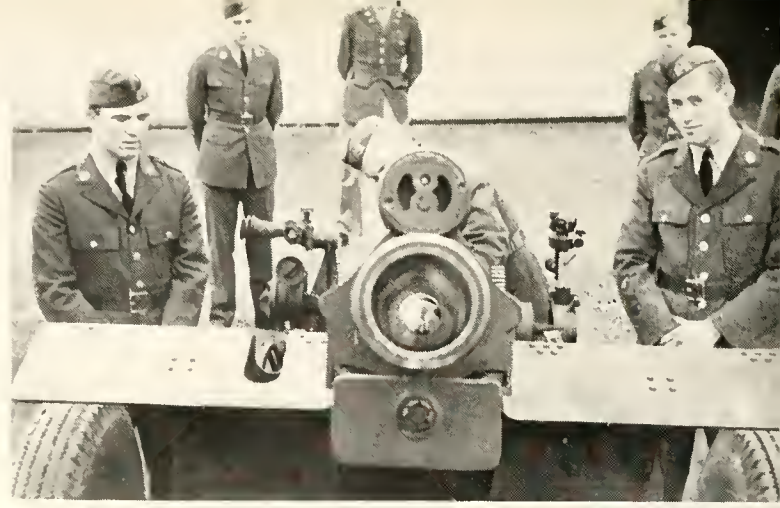

PHALANX

Phalanx is a National Military Fraternity open to members of the Advanced Corps Reserve Officers Training Corps, and embracing Alumni and Honorary members. The chapter here on the Eastern campus is known as the Eta Morae Phalanx. The requirements of admission into this chapter are of such a nature that it is indeed a most honorable and desirable privilege to gain admittance.

During the current year this Fraternity has enjoyed a most high degree of respect and has made many accomplishments; among which might be mentioned the sponsorship of the Homecoming Dance; which in itself was most gratifying.

The officers of Eta Morae Phalanx are: Walter Kleinsteuber, Commander; Paul A. Houchell, Lieutenant Commander; Henry J. Flynn, Warden-Historian; and Carl J. Risch, Finance Officer. Present Honorary members are Colonel John R. Starkey, Captain Earl T. Noble, and Lieutenant Guy Whitehead.

MILESTONE

The Milestone of this year will probably be the last for many years to come. Determination and perseverance in a critical year have been shown in this year's Milestone. The men that are seen in this book are typical of the hard-fighting men that make up the armed forces of the United States. The women have already proved that they are a valuable unit on the home front.

The Eastern Progress, our college newspaper, is a semi-weekly publication sponsored by Mr. William Keene of the English Department. The paper is not a departmental organization but draws its staff members from the entire student body.

This year, due to conditions existing because of the war, the Progress staff was re-organized almost entirely at the beginning of each quarter. Claude Rawlins, who served as co-editor during the first two quarters, graduated in March. Paul Houchell was business manager for the first quarter, Doyle Bell, for the second; and Ann Hanlon, for the third.

Sports editor Claude Williams left for Ft. Sill at the end of the second quarter and was succeeded by Glenn Garrett who left near the end of the third quarter to play professional baseball. Ben Sanders, news editor for the first two quarters, was called to active duty along with the rest of the Juniors early in April. He was succeeded by Ann Heffner.

PHOTO CLUB

The Eastern Photo Club is a newcomer to the campus, having been organized in the fall of 1941 at the request of five students who were interested in photography as a hobby. Since then fifty-five other students who find picture-making an interesting pastime have joined the club. The purposes of the club are to stimulate individual interest in photography, to provide information and supervised experience in amateur photography, and to promote friendship and exchange of ideas among those who have similar interests and hobbies. Invitations to new members are extended at the beginning of each quarter.

At the bi-monthly meetings methods in indoor lighting, taking candid pictures, posing for informal pictures, exposing negatives, developing, and printing are demonstrated and discussed. Members are encouraged to develop their own negatives and to print and enlarge their own pictures in the club darkroom. The winter quarter of this year was devoted to the preparation of pictures for the snapshot section of the Milestone. Social events of the year include a picnic at the home of the sponsor and a spring party to which guests are invited.

The club is sponsored by Dr. H. H. LaFuze.

Faculty members of the club are: Capt. Earl T. Noble, Dr. Harold Glover, and Miss Maye Waltz. Student members are: Jane Campbell, Roy Dawn, Francis Elkin, Ann Estill, Henry J. Flynn, Lucille Hampton, Edwin Howard, Jerry Igoe, Cleo McGuire, Betty Jo Picklesimer, Georgia Ramsey, Kathryn Sallee, Emma Schirmer, Carl Scott, Forest Tarter, Georgia Wert, Lenora White, Mary Ellen Wiley, and Luise Yates.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Men's Glee Club is one of the most active clubs on the campus. It is sponsored by Mr. Van Peursen. Among its members are: Billy Gravelyn, Russell Winegartner, Lloyd Willis, Donald Grollio, Dave Lumsden, Paul Houchell, Harry Lucas, Bob Congleton, James Hutson, Max Reed, Louis Kilgus, Bill Schulte, George Marich, Bourbon Canfield, Roy Gillioan, David Barnes, Allen Wickersham and Frank Putenney.

MADRIGAL CLUB

The Madrigal Club is sponsored by Mrs. Blanche Sams Seevers. Officers of the club are Helen Colvin, President, Marginia Stevenson, Secretary, Carolyn Miller, Vice-President, and Sara Brooks, Treasurer.

CHARLES T. HUGHES
Director of Athletics

Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletic director here at Eastern, has been connected with physical education since his boyhood days in Crittenden County. After going to prep school he became a four letter star at the University of Kentucky. Then he did graduate work in health and physical education at the University of Michigan, played professional baseball, coached at Harlan, and then came to Eastern. During his fourteen years' stay here he has coached all three of the major sports—baseball, football, and basketball. Last summer he was put in his present position as athletic director. All of "Turkey's" students agree on one thing: that his genuine homespun philosophy of life and of his work can easily serve as a landmark for the coming generation.

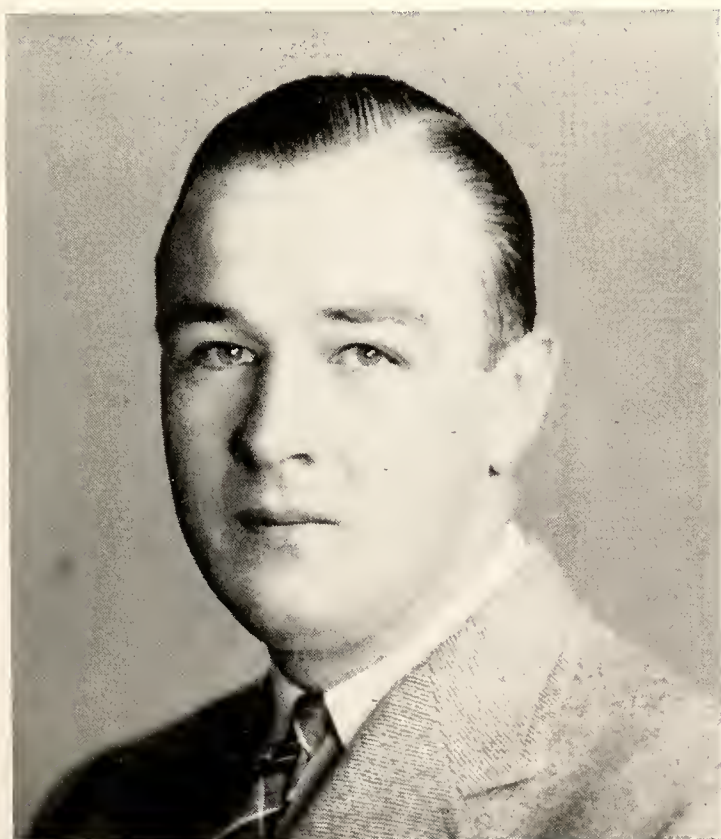

ROME RANKIN
Head Coach

A brown suit and a red carnation are all the insignia he wears, yet coach Rome Rankin guides the destinies of Eastern's football and basketball teams with all the skill and foresight of a four star general. The record he has established at Eastern and the men he has moulded stand as monuments of his success.

TOM SAMUELS
Assistant Coach

Quiet and reserved, Tom Samuels is the man behind the scene in the building of great grid machines at Eastern. Each spring he also coaches a track and field team that wins its share of the medals in the K. I. A. C. track meet.

THE STORY

The first September days at Eastern furnished the stimulus that sends thousands to many fall Saturday afternoons' enjoyment. That stimulus the thud of a foot against a ball, was creating a spirit in over forty boys who were destined to write football history for their school. This year Eastern defeated Western, and the bitterness of their defeat of the year before was largely wiped out.

The first two weeks' hard practice with its two practice sessions per day paid ample dividends to the boys and coaches with four wins, two ties, and two defeats. There were times during those first two weeks when the going was tough. The sweat rolled freely and at night tired bodies sought a bed early. All this added up to one thing though, and the boys did not mind. It was building in them a determination to get the job done. This, as it has often before been proved, has helped many men to succeed in later years. The end of the two week period found Coach Rankin's boys tapering off for their first game with the "Golden Eagles" of Tennessee Polytechnic Institute. This game and several others, to be played with new teams, made up the toughest schedule ever attempted by a Maroon squad. Coaches Rankin, Samuels, and Hughes felt, however, that their boys could give a good account of themselves against such opponents as T. P. I., Akron, Northwest Teachers, Morris Harvey, Murray, Western, West Liberty, and Morehead.

BALL

The first game of the season with T. P. I. was played under the bulbs at Cookeville. The night was hot and the Eagles proceeded to make it so for Eastern at the outset of the game. Eastern's forward wall began to tighten, and, late in the second quarter after a thirty-two yard march, Benedett plunged over for the first tally. Tech came back hard at the half but could not penetrate Eastern's defense. Nowakowski, after making runs of twelve and thirteen yards respectively, again put the ball over the goal late in the fourth quarter. The superior physical condition of Eastern's team, was one of the deciding factors in their victory.

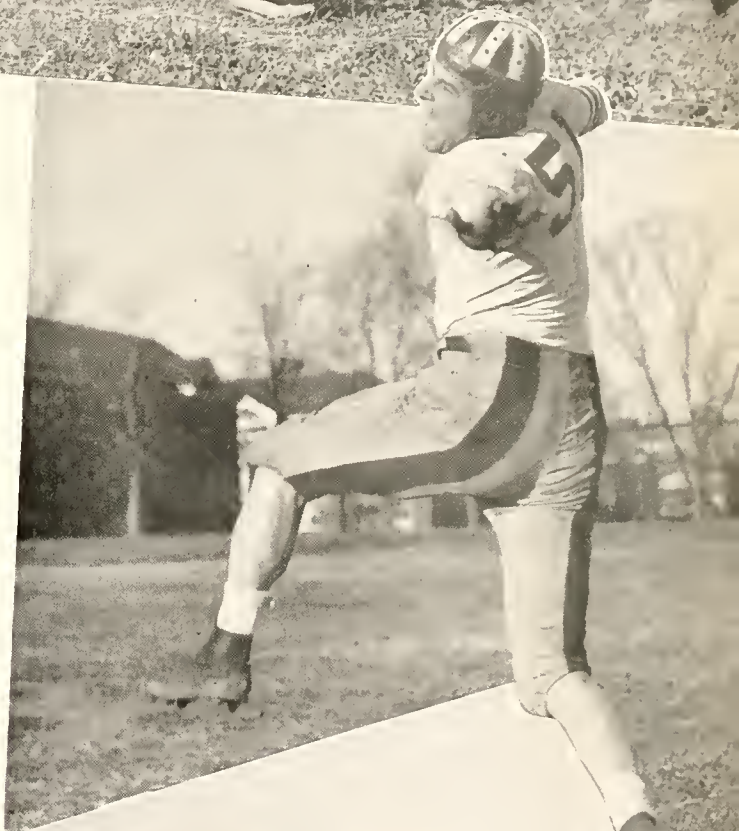

Coming home for their first game on Eastern's turf, the Maroons bucked up against a stiff defensive team. The Bearcats of Northwest Missouri scored early in the game by recovering two fumbles, one of Eastern's and one of their own which had rolled over the goal. Eastern did not score until the third quarter after a sixty yard drive by Siphers, T. Benedett, and Franklin, who scored. Rain in the final quarter kept either team from making a serious goal threat. Eastern netted eleven first downs while the visitors stacked up only five.

Traveling by train to Charleston, West Virginia, the Rankin-men were destined to find out some of the difficulties of travel during wartime. The game with the Golden Eagles of Morris Harvey was a night affair. Eastern's opponents put a well-balanced team on the field averaging 198 pounds. Eastern threatened early in the game, but a fumble kept them from scoring. It was not until the third quarter that the only score of the game was made by Morris Harvey. Eastern came back fighting but to no avail.

Leaving home again, the Maroons traveled to Akron, Ohio, where they met the Akron University Zippers in another night tussel. The game was played in the Rubber Bowl which bounded Eastern back into the win column. Most of the game was played between the twenty yard lines and it wasn't until late in the third period, when Siphers' pass to Maggard was ruled complete due to interference, that the stage was set for a score by Eastern. Jack Ley, a freshman, skirted left end on a reverse for the only tally.

For the third consecutive week the Maroons played on foreign territory. The Thoroughbreds of Murray were held to a trot, but at the same time the Maroons of Eastern were also slowed down to a tied score. The Thoroughbreds drew first blood in the quarter with a thirty yard pass but had their extra point blocked by Bill Benedett. The Maroons' subs came back fighting but it was not until the fourth play of the fourth quarter that Eastern knotted the score through a long pass by Brady to Ley. The extra point fell short of the goal posts. The Maroons played most of the final stanza in the enemy territory but lacked that extra something required to get the ball to pay dirt.

VARSITY FOOT

A week's layoff and the remembrance of last year's reversal were just two of the many reasons why this year's Eastern squad broke the Western jinx. Eastern scored in the second, third, and fourth periods. The first score was the result of a sixty-five yard drive with a pass from Nowaksowski to Siphers, who scored. The second scoring spree was started when Aiken recovered a fumble on Western's forty-four yard line. A series of runs and a pass to Heucke gave Eastern the ball on the fifteen yard stripe. Siphers circled right end for the score. In the fourth quarter Bill Benedett blocked a punt, and his brother Ted bucked the ball to pay dirt in two attempts. The game was played on a muddy field which seemed to help the Maroons, who all season had turned in their best performances on soggy fields. This victory saw the Maroons at their peak and Eastern's rooters went satisfied with a decisive victory in their memories.

To stay in the win column Eastern came from behind in the second half and handed the Hilltoppers of West Liberty the short end of the score. The toppers scored twice in the third quarter and Novakowski once in the fourth. Although he did not score, Ted Benedett was the offensive star of the day.

The "Hawg Rifle" changed hands this year but not until sixty minutes of the toughest brand of football had been displayed by both contestants. The Eagles of Morehead, keyed to the highest pitch, made good use of all their opportunities. They did all their scoring in the first half and played the game safely the next half. Just before the first half ended, Eastern made its most threatening bid for a score with Ted Benedett carrying the ball almost every play but was stopped on the eight yard line. Gibson's pass interception in the third quarter set up another Eastern attack which bogged down. From there on the rest of the game was played in the middle of the field.

ARSITY BASKET

EMERSON WARF

Forward - Freshman

Unknown to fans throughout the season, Warf was awarded a place on Eastern's tournament squad by doing some fine playing during the season.

CLIFF TINNELL

Guard - Senior

Gone from school for a while, Cliff returned. About the middle of January he again became eligible to play. He continued his excellent playing, "hounding" opponents continually.

LLOYD HUDNALL

Forward - Junior

Known to all as "Stretch" he was depended on for his fine offensive work. He worked the bank as well as some of the best players in the game. He was 6' 4" of a basketball player.

GOEBEL RITTER

Forward - Freshman

Only a freshman, this boy turned in stunning performances both on offense and defense. His good shots will long be remembered by the team.

"COPPER" JOHN CAMPBELL

Center - Senior

For four years "Copper" has been playing ball at Eastern and during that time has been the most consistent offensive threat. He has now wound up his college career by being high scorer in the K. I. A. C. and a member of the all-tournament squad.

JACK DORNA

Guard - Freshman

Another freshman, Jack, made the first five by his sterling brand of ball. A good player on both offensive and defensive, he consistently stole the ball from the opponents. He was the smallest man on the squad.

CHARLES DORNA

Forward - Senior

Charley, a senior, having played four years of basketball, will be remembered because he might be called one of the greatest of "clutch" players. When a few points were needed, this boy was generally called upon to get them.

IVAN MAGGARD

Guard - Junior

Although not outstanding on the offense, "Buster", as he was known, will be remembered for his brilliant defensive work. He guarded some of the best, and refused to let them score.

"ODIE" WEST

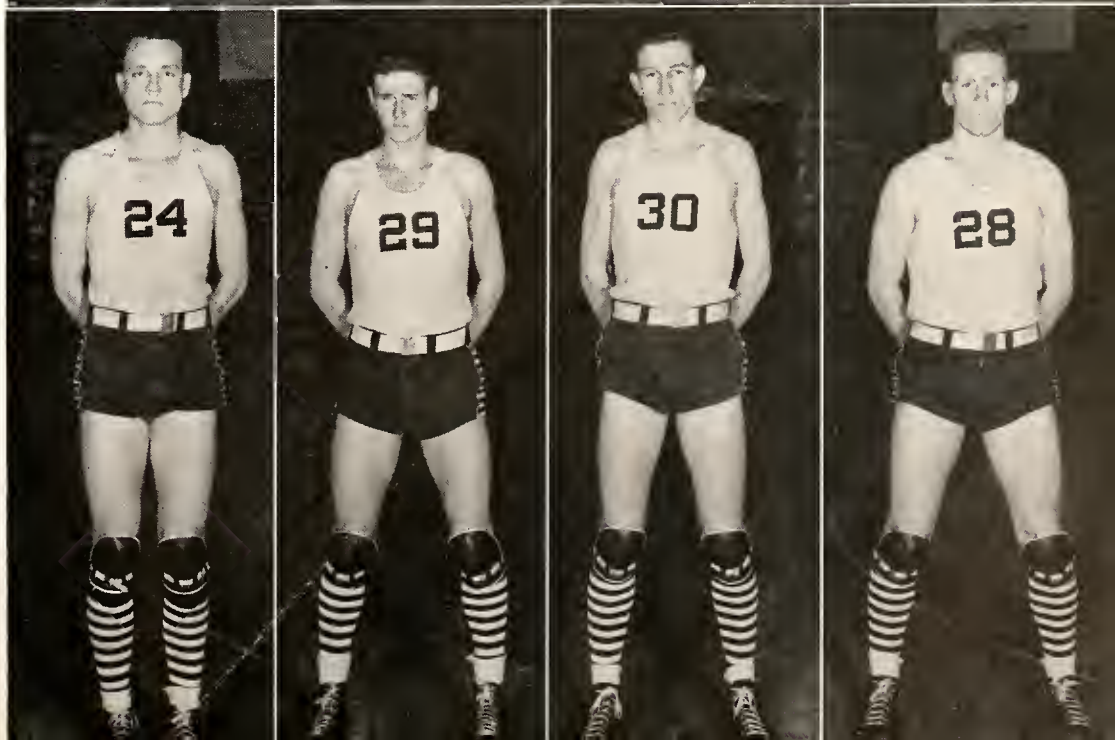

Guard - Sophomore

Ote did not get to see much action, but when playing gave a game fight for the ball.

ARNOLD RISEN

Center - Freshman

Known as "Shorty" to members of the team, he is 6'9" tall. He showed great promise of becoming an outstanding star in future years.

BALL

THE STORY

Eastern again completed a successful season by winning 12 games and losing 4 for a 75 percent average throughout the regular season. Playing some of the best teams, Eastern was defeated by a great Western team and other good teams such as Berea, and Ky. Wesleyan. During the season, Eastern amassed a total of 867 points for an average of over 54 points per game while holding the opponents to 642 points or an average of 40 points per game.

Eastern went into the K. I. A. C. tourney with this record which could be compared with the best of those teams playing. After surviving the first round, defeating Transylvania 68-35, and defeating Union in the quarter-finals by a score of 53-36, they were defeated by Morehead 66-64 in an over-time period in the semi-finals. During the K. I. A. C. tournament Eastern averaged 62 points a game.

Next year Eastern will miss the excellent playing of Charles Dorna, Cliff Tinnell and Copper John Campbell who are graduating in June.

INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

Basketball faded into discard with the coming of spring, warm weather, and sunshine. Mr. Charles T. Hughes, Director of Athletics, Coaches Rome Rankin and Tom Samuels and Mrs. Gertrude Hood continued the widely extended physical program at Eastern by forming and organizing softball teams.

Inspired by this group, the girls formed a softball league composed of six teams, while the boys softball league was composed of four teams. Unfortunately, rain handicapped the entire schedule causing several games to be postponed.

The games were all played with the inspiration to win and of course since this was the first time a lot of the girls played softball the resulting scores were unusually high. The standings for the respective leagues were as follows:

STANDING BOYS SOFTBALL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Stadium	2	0	1.000
2nd Floor Memorial	2	1	.667

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

RICHMOND REGULARS
INTRAMURAL CHAMPS

The Intramural basketball program at Eastern was the result of a wartime request that more boys be actively engaged in some competitive sport. Basketball was the game; Elmer Graham, a student, managed the play, and the whole program was under the watchful eye of the Physical Education Department of Eastern.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

This year's program was greatly expanded to give all the men students the opportunity to prepare for the life they would be required to lead as soldiers. The snap and zeal of physical education and training develops precision, intuition, leadership, alertness, and numerous other qualities of a good soldier.

The physical training program has been an invaluable education to all.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

For you who have been here since September 1939, time seems to be the most elusive thing with which you have come in contact. For those who started with us and have dropped along the wayside, college must seem very distant in their minds compared to their more recent experiences. Then there are the students who have joined us along the years. They have become one of our family, the class of '43.

In September, 1939, there were four hundred and seventy-two students, one of the largest classes to enter Eastern. We were proud of our number. Our class officers were: president, Joe Bill Siphers; vice president, Robert Beeler; secretary, Robert Yeager; treasurer, Shirley Mason. Our sponsor was Noel B. Cuff.

That year was our first encounter with a higher education. We made many friends and by September 1940, many of these same friends have dropped out along the way—jobs, marriage, the usual reasons. Out of our large freshman class only three hundred and forty-six returned for the sophomore year. Our class officers were: president, Copper John Campbell; vice president, Guy Warming; secretary, Ann Allen; treasurer, Margaret Muncy. That year one of our class, Margaret Ramsey, was chosen Miss Eastern. That was quite an honor for a sophomore class and Miss Ramsey.

Then came our junior year with two hundred and seven students to carry on for the class of '43. Our officers were: president, Alice Kinzer; secretary, Ann Allen; treasurer, D. T. Ferrill, Jr. Our sponsor was Dr. Jenkins. Mr. Popularity, Harry Lucas, was chosen from our ranks. Our Junior Prom, known as one of the best in years, was a big success with Bobbie West queen.

The first part of our junior year was a happy, carefree period for all young people. Then came that disaster on December 7, 1941, soon followed by a declaration of war by our President. From then on our students have been entering Uncle Sam's forces for the defense of our great, free country. Our class, the class of '43, began then to diminish rapidly. There have been no regrets on our part, though, because we all realize the urgency of going all out for this war. Since the beginning of this war, we students have turned over a new leaf. No longer do we cut classes, put aside our lessons, and just loaf; our sole purpose is to get an education as soon as possible and get into the fight.

The senior year, our fourth and last, showed an enrollment for our class of one hundred and thirteen. All branches of the service have called most of our senior men. Our officers for our last year are: president, Clark Farley; vice president, Carl Risch; secretary, Betty Griffitt; and treasurer, Helen Colvin; sponsor, Noel B. Cuff.

Classes and activities have gone as usual although with a smaller attendance. This last quarter most of the Advanced Corps of the R. O. T. C. were sent to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, with one member sent to Texas. This summer all of our Advanced Corps will be in the army.

Again Mr. Popularity was chosen from our class. This time it was Joe Bill Siphers. Battalion Sponsor and Queen of the Sweetheart Ball was Carolyn Miller. Battery Sponsors were Margie Crites and Mae Fawbush. During the K. I. A. C. Tournament, Copper John Campbell was elected to the all-K. I. A. C. team. Kathryn Sallee was elected Senior Queen. Her attendants were Sara Brooks and Betty Griffitt. The senior attendants to the Junior Prom Queen were Helen Colvin and Mary Marrs Board.

Despite the war and shortage of men, most of our activities have gone on as usual. Our Senior Prom had to be cancelled, but other activities have made up for that.

In June 1943, our graduating seniors will have come through college in a critical period and with a determination to use our hard-earned education in the best way we can in order to put a finis to this destructive war. "Long may our land be bright, with freedom's holy light . . ."

GRADUATE STUDENTS

The Graduate Division offers work leading to the degree of Master of Arts in Education. The graduate program is planned to meet the needs of teachers, supervisors, and administrators of the public schools. The major field in the graduate program is that of professional education. Minors are offered in the departments of agriculture, art, biology, chemistry, commerce, English, French, geography, health, and physical education, history, home economics, industrial arts, Latin, mathematics, music, physics, and political science. Two types of graduate students are recognized; (1) Students who enter and become candidates for the degree of Master of Arts in Education; and (2) students who wish to broaden their education without reference to a graduate degree.

Applicants for admission to the Graduate Division must hold a Bachelor's degree from a standard institution, and must have completed the requirements for a four-year curriculum for the education of elementary and for secondary teachers, as prescribed by the Council on Public Higher Education of Kentucky.

Official credentials should be filed with the Registrar of the college before entrance. These credentials should include: (a) a complete transcript of high school credits; (b) a complete transcript of college or university credits.

Transferred credits shall not be used to reduce either the resident requirements or minimum number of quarter hours required.

The student must complete thirty-six weeks, or the equivalent, in residence and earn a minimum of forty-five quarter hours, thirty-six of which shall be in regular course work, and write a thesis in the major field. Upon the recommendation of the major and minor professors, the student completes forty-eight weeks in residence and a minimum of fifty-four quarter hours of credit.

At least 50 percent of all course work must be in courses open to graduate students only. The remainder of the work may be completed in upper division courses.

The student shall have an average standing of 2.0 and no credit shall be granted for a grade below "C."

The student must complete a major in the field of education. A major shall require a minimum of eighteen quarter hours of course work in addition to a thesis in the major field. The thesis should show, among other things, the following characteristics: (a) Ability of candidate to work independently on an approved problem; (b) a reasonably wide familiarity with the literature of the field of specialization; (c) a practical working knowledge of research methods; and (d) conclusions justified by supporting data.

The student must complete a minor. The minor shall be determined by the institution in terms of the student's need, provided that the minor, or minors, shall be in upper division and-or graduate courses.

The student shall pass both an oral and written examination on his major and minor fields.

The student must present a thesis at least three weeks before the degree is to be conferred. The thesis must be approved by the major and minor professors and by the Dean of the college and must conform to regulations approved by the graduate committee for writing theses. Two typewritten copies of the thesis must be filed in the college library at least one week before the degree is conferred.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1940, the Junior Class of 1943, four hundred ninety-nine strong, invaded the campus of Eastern. Sponsor Dr. P. M. Grise grouped them into three divisions, each division to elect its own officers. Later, the three divisions combined and elected one set of officers. The commissioned officers were as follows: George Norman, president; Doris Kennamer, vice president; Gail Roberts, secretary; Jack Holt, treasurer.

With these leaders, the work of the Freshmen Class was performed in an admirable manner. Some results were the election of representatives to work on the Social Committee. Also, Ann Gately and Ann Earle were chosen to be attendants to the Junior Prom Queen. The headquarters of the class was the auditorium of the Administration Building.

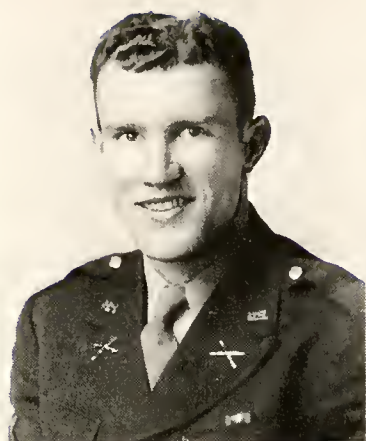

The battle to gain a degree raged on into the fall of 1941. The ranks were only two hundred seventy-seven strong. Many were called out of the ranks in January of 1941 by the National Guard. A normal loss would have been about one hundred; but the loss this year was considerably larger, due to the drain by the draft as well as by the National Guard. The headquarters were transferred to the Little Theatre with Dr. Grise still as sponsor. For this year's battle, a new group of leaders were chosen: Jack Loper, president; James Todd, vice president; LeMonne Miller, secretary; Ann Gately, treasurer. The representatives for the social committee functioned well. LeMonne Miller and Martha Jane Thompson were chosen attendants to the Junior Prom Queen.

The goal of a degree came into closer view as the Junior Class for 1942 began the year, only one hundred seven in number. The leaders for this year were Gail Roberts, president; Irvine Keuhn, vice president; Cleo McGuire, secretary; Lawrence Carlson, treasurer. Representatives were chosen for the Social Committee and for the Milestone work. An informal dance was given in the Recreation Room of the Student Union Building to raise funds for the Junior Prom. Cleo McGuire was elected Queen of the Junior Prom; Ann Gately and Beatrice Goins were chosen as attendants. The Prom exceeded all expectations and was quite a success, socially and financially.

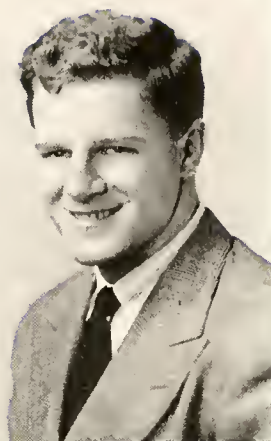

The Junior Class of 1943, one year within its goal, ends the year with a good record and in good financial condition. It has been well represented on the athletic team and among the outstanding campus figures. It has been successful in all its ventures. This is probably due to the fact that the members of the class have been cooperative and have worked in harmony through all their school years; but not to be excluded is the faithful whole-hearted guidance of their sponsor, Dr. P. M. Grise.

On September 17, 1941, the trains, buses, and private cars brought to Richmond an energetic and enthusiastic group of young people. For several months prior to this momentous date this would-be-group of college students had looked forward expectantly and enthusiastically to their introduction into the realms of higher learning.

After the routine happenings—forgetting room numbers, misplacing keys, and losing one of the many cards necessary for registration; we struggled through the official installation with much difficulty. We were no longer would-be students, but full fledged members of the college.

These experiences had given us the courage and insight into the meaning of the long established term "green freshmen". After a week of examinations, we awaited the coming of the upper classmen and "Hell Week". During this week it was only a natural sight to see pig tails on the girls and fellows riding stick horses. We were sports, though, and few were called before the "Rat Court".

We elected class officers and organized our class after all the upper classmen had arrived and showed us our places. Roy Gilligan was president, John A. Rogers, vice-president, and Mayme Frieda Cornelius, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Allen was our splendid class sponsor and helped us over the rough spots.

Margie Little and Margaret Ann Hollyfield were selected as attendants to the Junior Prom Queen.

Our freshman year was comparatively uneventful, but we came forth in all our glory as sophomores. We returned in September of 1942, lads and lassies ready to take up the ways of upper classmen.

Dr. Allen, our former class sponsor, had joined the Navy, and Miss Ford was our new supervisor. She added a new vigor to our class. Our meetings were interesting as well as educational.

Our new class officers were: Wallace Smith, president; Evelyn Coffman, vice president; Mildred Stamper, secretary; and Margie Little, treasurer.

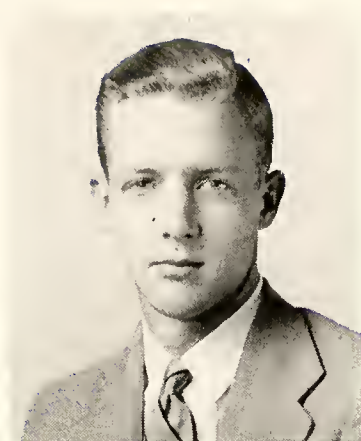

The Sophomore Party in the recreation room of the Men's Dormitory was one of the thrills that come once in a life time. We also gave a farewell party for the boys that left for military service.

Margaret Ann Hollyfield and Evelyn Coffman were our Junior Prom Queen attendants. Betty Carmen was chosen as MISS EASTERN.

Many of our boys have joined the armed forces and are serving their country. We miss them and some day the clouds that now envelop this land of ours will be driven away and the boys will return. We're proud of them and we dedicate this page to the boys that are serving us by doing their part and carrying our Stars and Stripes to Victory.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

Before I begin this narrative, ballad, or what have you, I wish to offer my apologies for being unable to dub this class "green" freshmen. We weren't that color, nor even the palest shade of it. Sophisticated or hard-boiled would describe us better.

We, the Freshmen of '43, came into E. K. S. T. C. four hundred strong and elected the following officers to guide us:

President Clyde Wilcox
Vice-President John Ley
Secretary Janet Knox
Treasurer Patricia Hibbs

Sorry as we were to lose him, at the end of the first quarter, Clyde Wilcox was called to the armed forces. The capable John Ley was automatically made president, and Neil Roberts was elected vice-president.

Those representing the freshman class on the Milestone Staff were Ann Heffner and Paul Bunton.

Ann Heffner and Janet Knox were chosen to represent us in the Junior Prom as Attendants to the Queen.

Now that we have jumped the first hurdle successfully, we have cast aside that "freshie look" and consider ourselves upper-classmen.

We, the Freshman Class of '43, extend our thanks to our sponsor, Dr. Giles, for his sincere cooperation in guiding us through this year.
